

Grand County Rural Health Network

2016 Community Health Planning Process

Planning Map

Vision Statement – The residents of Grand County have access to a variety of affordable programs, services and open space that supports their overall health and well-being

Purpose Statement – The purpose of the planning process is to identify 2-4 major strategies that will significantly improve the coordination, delivery and accessibility of health and support services in Grand County